To Whom It May Concern:

I have followed up on the status of my case on line. The notice on line states that "it's taking between 570 and 600 days to process this kind of case."

I received a notice date on October, 6, 2004. According to the process, I would have to get my finger print clearing in order for my application to get adjusted. I also know that it takes ~ 1 year for the finger prints clearing procedure.

However, I have not received any notices from your office about the finger prints that I have yet to do. I would like to ask you to please follow up on my case and see if you can please send me a finger print notice. So that we can adjust my status within the time-frames specified in this case.

Please let me know if you have any further questions. @ 612-432-7770

Best Regards,

Inna Pikulenko.

Mrs Evelyn Upchurch:

I wanted to bring to you attention that I seem to experience a lot of problems with the Texas Service Center while it's processing my application.

I have received several duplicate letters asking me for the forms that I have already submitted twice!! I now can't schedule an appointment for finger prints because your office somehow keeps sending me schedules to my old address despite the fact I've made appropriate address changes!!!

I am writing to you office asking to address both of the issues with my application. I have submitted copies of my most recent correspondences with the Texas Service Center and I trust that you will help take care of this so that I don't have to consult my immigration attorney to expedite this process by filing a lawsuit.

Best Regards.

To Whom It May Concern:

I wanted to request your help with my immigration case taking place at the Texas Service Center.

I have filed for the adjustment of status (i-485 - permanent residence) in October 2004. I have been informed about a year ago that my case was transferred to the Texas Service Center for processing. The office in Texas basically keeps losing parts of my case. As an example, they have misplaced my medical datasheet that I was required to re-submit my medical data-sheet and bibliography sheet. They also kept sending my my finger print invitation to my old address even though I have notified them of my address change right away. They sent me two fingerprint appointments as to my old address and scheduled my finger print appointment in Minneapolis, MN. I have scheduled my own finger print appointment in May here in New York. The office from Texas sent me a letter telling me that they would schedule me yet an appointment, but it may take them up to three months. Three months have gone by, but I did not get any notice.

I keep sending them letters, but to no avail. I know that after finger print stage is complete, it can take up to six months before the case is finalized. The six months are now coming up, but the Texas Service Center is not doing anything to process my I-485 application.

I ask to please help me help them to clean up the confusion that I already did my finger prints and now it's a matter of actually issuing my green card. The Texas Service Center is NOT keeping a diligent track of my records (as I have indicated above).

I would like to know what stage of the process my application is at so we can move on with the process.

I would really appreciate your help.

Please let me know what other documents I need to submit in order for us to proceed with this case.

Best Regards, Inna Pikulenko
